DAVIS THEATRE.

Return of the Homan Musical Revue with Added Features and Everything

Everybody will be out with the glad hand this afternoon to welcome back Homan's big musical revue which re-turns to the Davis today to open a week's engagement. All the old favor-ites will be with the show and several added features that were not seen when the show played here, will make when the show played here, will make this the biggest show ever seen in Norwich for the money. The company will present for their opening bill a corking good comedy called The American Widow, followed by a big musical revue in which every member of the company will be heard. Everything will be entirely different from anything ever seen here. Mr. Jewett and Miss Pendleton will be seen in all new dances. Miss Farrington, the popular leading lady, will have new songs and will wear different gowns from anything she has ever been seen in here. Gene Boudray, the popular in here. Gene Boudray, the popular little bass singer, will be heard in new solos, and Mr. O'Connell will also have new ballads to offer. Mr. Morrison, the ragtime singer, has something new for this bill and Mr. Elwood will be heard in new comedy songs and sto-ries. In fact, every member of the company will have something that has never been heard here and there is no doubt but they will uphold their reputation and continue to please the reputation and continue to please the Norwich theatregoers. An added attraction with the show will be Miss Nance Shannon, a big musical comedy prima donna who will be heard in a repertoire of high class songs and many other new novelties will be introduced in this opening bill. Besides the musical revue there will be a selected program of Mutual movies, headed by The Roughneck, a powerful two reel K. B. drama; The Mutual War Weekly, with scenes from the European battlefields, and one funny Keystone comedy called Gussie's my Keystone comedy called Gussie's Wayward Path, featuring Sid Chaplin, brother of the famous Charlle. Matinee today at 2.30, all seats 10 cents, children 5 cents; evening, 7 to 8.15, pictures, revue 8.15 to 9.30, 9.30 to 10.80 pictures. Come early!

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Clara Kimball Young, Appearing in "The Deep Purple," Five Reels.

In this wonderful story, Frisco Kate, otherwise Mrs. Fallon, a reformed crook, keeps a boarding house in New York, which is frequented by members of the underworld, who still keep a hold on Kate notwithstanding her desire to reform. William Lake, a westerner, is decoyed to her rooms by an innocent girl, Doris Moore, who has been brought to New York by Harry Leland, a crook, under promise of marriage. Posing as the girl's husband, Leland attempts to blackmail Lake, but the latter has been warned by Kate, and defies Leland and the gang. Meanwhile, Leland and two other crooks have betrayed to the police Gordon Laylock, upon whose head was a heavy price for various murders in the west, and to whom Kate has extended her sympathy. To repay Kate for her kindness, Lake helped her buy Laylock's way out of prison. No sooner was he free than joining Kate, he saved William Lake from Leland's murderous attack and shot him in self defense.

Laylock and Mrs. Fallon sought opportunities for complete reform in Alother crooks have betraved to the portunities for complete reform in Al-giers, and the westerner, Lake, and Doris Moore, the innocent decoy, be-came sincere lovers and were married. This spectacle in five reels is a sensation of the season and besides Miss Young's faultless acting and splendid support from a peerless cast, the photography is supreme and stands with-out a rival in late pictures.

AT THE AUDITORIUM

The Honeymooners, a big musical comedy production with sixteen people in the cast, headed by Lew Powers, Fern Wayne and Edith Powers, ers, Fern Wayne and Edith Powers, will be the attraction at the Auditorium all this week, starting with the matinee this afternoon. This company is of special local interest on account of its having in its cast Miss Fern Wayne, a Norwich girl, who was the prima donna with the Prince of Plisen for some time, and who joined the Honeymooners company about a month ago. Miss Wayne has a won-derfully fine, strong soprano voice and will be heard with delight by her many Norwich friends. Lew Powers, the principal comedian with the show, is principal comedian with the show, is a finished performer and has played through New England many times with several of the best one night stand musical comedy productions. Edith Powers is a dainty little girl with a pretty face and fine volce and is bound to attract with her clever work. There are other well known principals with the show and the biggest chorus that has ever been seen here in any tabhas ever been seen here in any tab-loid attraction, with a big variety of costumes, electrical novelties, etc. On the picture program for Monday and Tuesday the feature will be a two reel drama entitled The Blood of the Children, with William Clifford and Marie Walcamp in the leading roles. Skipper Simpson's Daughter will be the comedy reel in today's show and the sa corking good farce comedy production by the popular Joker company. There will be three shows daily, at 2.30, 7 and 9 o'clock and the usual price of admission will prevail.

The Absent Minded Must

A query: What did the absent-minded people do before the days of The Bulletin Want Ads?

Have "Want" Ads

Answer: They DID WITHOUT. Absent-minded Mr. Blank would leave his glasses on the counter at the haberdasher's and quite forget to remember where it was he left them. The clerk, too, would forget to remember who it was that left the glasses. And so the glasses were lost for good.

When The Bulletin Want Ads came to stay, they at once became the boon of the absent-minded.

No trick of memory, no fit of abstraction could put the mislaid article beyond the reach of The Bulletin "Lost and Found" Ad.

By reaching practically everyone in and near Norwich who reads an English paper, The Bulletin Lost Ad would faithfully search out the finder.

POETRY

NOBILITY. True worth is in being, not seeming; In doing each day that goes by Some little good—not in dreaming Of great things to do by and by. For whatever men say in their blindness, And spite of the fancies of youth, here's nothing so kingly as kindness, And nothing so royal as truth.

We get back our mete as we measure:
We cannot do wrong and feel right;
Nor can we give pain and gain pleasure.
For justice avenges each slight.
The air for the wing of the sparrow.
The bush for the robin and wren.
But always the path that is narrow
And straight for the children of men.

We cannot make bargains for blisses,
Nor eatch them like fishes in nets,
And sometimes the thing our life
misses
Helps more than the thing which it gets.
For good lieth not in pursuing,
Nor gaining of great nor of small;
But just in the doing—and doing
As we would be done by, is all.

Through envy, through malice, through hating
Against the world early and late,
No jet of our courage abating.
Our part is to work and to wait.
And elight is the sting of his trouble
Whose winnings are less than his worth;
For he who is honest is noble,
Whatever his fortunes or birth.
—Alice Cary.
